Duke Ellington School of the Arts is an accredited college preparatory public school of the District of Columbia offering pre-professional training in dance, instrumental and vocal music, museum studies, literary media, visual arts, technical design and production, and theater. Ellington offers students an educational experience that combines both academic studies and artistic development. Our vision is to meet the needs of talented students who are considering careers in the arts by providing intensive arts instruction of the highest quality and strong academic curriculum and to prepare students for post-secondary education and/or pre-professional careers. Ellington's unique partnership with the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and The George Washington University provides significant opportunities to the students, faculty and staff.
